The specification must be amended to make a reference to make a reference to 6,739,003.

On page 3, lines 13 and 20, numeral "16" is confusingly used to identify both a "section" and a "table". On page 4, lines 10 and 18, numeral 40 is confusingly used to identify both "rods" and a "lift mechanisms". Correction is required.

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claim 2 is rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6,739,003. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the pending claim is merely a broader version of the patent claim.

Claim 3 is rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6,739,003 in view of Kurosawa. The use of a cover, such as cover 3, taught by Kurosawa, would have been obvious to one ordinarily skilled in the art at the time the invention was made because, Kurosawa recognizes the desirability of covering a foot tub in order to keep out dirt.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 2, 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It is not clear what the "center support table" in line 4 of claim 2 is. In line 6 of claim 2, after "inside", -the- should be inserted.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 3673

Claim 1, as best understood, is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Borrero et al, Park or Huynh et al.

Claim 1, as best understood, is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Kim, McCullough or Oh et al.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 2, as best understood, is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over McCullough, Borrero, Oh et al or Par, teaching applicant's basic device, but not a cover for the foot tub, in view of Kurosawa, teaching the use of a conventional cover for a foot tub.

It would have been obvious to one ordinarily skilled in the art at the time the invention was made to have used a cover with the foot tubs of the primary references, because Kurosawa recognizes the desirability of using a cover on a foot tub, in order to keep out dirt.
